3. You would not stay upon a mountain top.
 You journeyed onward to Jerusalem,
 to face the hate, be put to death,
 and in three days to rise again.

4. Ah, Jesus Christ, both crown and cross for us,
 O, come restore our sad humanity.
 Your cross has borne our sin and pain.
 Now, by your word, come set us free.

5. Teach us to pray, to listen to your word,
 and help us face the trials of this world.
 For in these days we shall be changed with life in death and hope in you.
